

Lorem Ipsum License Agreement

1. Application of Lorem

1.1 Scope of application: Lorem Ipsum foresees the decomposition of active substances present in crop protection products in a way that allows farmers to more accurately plan their protection program. Lorem Ipsum platform is still in the TEST PHASE.

At the date of this Agreement, the Lorem Ipsum platform supports predictions and simulations related to strawberries and nectarines, limited only to regions located in Poland. The scope of use in relation to agricultural products may be supplemented by Lorem Ipsum.

Within Lorem Ipsum, the user is allowed to use 10 or 20 predictions, depending on the user's choice. Prediction updates also mean the use of predictions. Generating predictions may take several minutes.

2. Additional Conditions

2.1 Lorem Ipsum reserves the right to suspend access to the platform for the user for reasons of modification or other functionalities.

2.2 Lorem Ipsum is designed for business use only, and is not intended for consumers. It is understood that the user is a company and accepts responsibility under civil law.

3. User Responsibility

3.1 The user agrees that it cannot use the platform if under the age of 18.

3.2 The user assumes full responsibility for fulfilling all requirements regarding access to the platform, including compliance with third-party software requirements.

4. Legal Disclaimers

4.1 Lorem Ipsum does not provide any guarantees regarding the accuracy of predictions, and the user acknowledges the experimental phase of the platform.

4.2 Lorem Ipsum shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use of the platform.
